

Shri K. Rajesh Chandra is an IPS Officer of the 1985 batch borne on Bihar Cadre. He is a post-graduate in Economics from Jawaharlal Nehru University New Delhi. Shri Chandra has served in various capacities such as ASP Patna City, ADC to Governor of.

Bihar, District SP of Aurangabad, Siwan, Gopalganj, Begusarai, Muzaffarpur, Bokaro, Chatra, Dhanbad, and Senior S.P. Patna as well as Range Deputy Inspector General of Police, Eastern Range, Bhagalpur handling crime and law and order problems. He has also served as S.P. Special Branch, Bihar.

On deputation to Government of India, Shri Chandra served as DIG and IG of Special Protection Group (SPG), handling Prime Minister's Security. He has undergone various Police Training programmes in India and abroad.

On return from Government of India deputation he served as Inspector General of Police (operations) and later as Additional Director General of Intelligence, Bihar.

Presently he is serving as Director General, Bureau of Civil Aviation Security, at Delhi. He has been designated as the "Appropriate Authority" by the Government of India for the purposes of aviation security regulations.

Shri Chandra is a recipient of President's Police Medal for Distinguished Service, Police Medal for Meritorious Service, Special Duty Medal and Antarik Suraksha Medal.